Chaponika Archer

Because of this brave woman's courage to "find her voice" CENN will now offer a support group for others looking for help to "find their voice" Chaponika, you are an inspiration to all of us. Our first get to know you group will meet January 25, 2022. It will be the 4th Tuesday evening of each month. Held at the Lakeside office.

Please listen to Chaponika's podcast "It Takes Courage to Find Your Voice" on The Homecare Companion.

Joann Glenn officially retired from CENN after 18 years of service.

Joann has truly blessed CENN over the years and she will be missed by all!

COVID Update

As the Omicron variant becomes the prominent COVID-19 strain in the US, we must continue to follow the CDC guidelines. These guidelines state that you MUST wear a mask at ALL times while performing your job. You cannot take your mask off inside of your client's residence. If CENN is made aware that you have not been following policy then you will be disciplined. Please remember that CENN is trying to keep you and your client's safe.

CENN Preceptor Course

A preceptor is an experienced aide who teaches and supervises less experienced aides or students. A preceptor's role includes: ... Facilitator –Preceptors are responsible for identifying someone's learning needs and connecting them with opportunities to meet these needs and grow by mentoring them.

Do you have a love for learning, a desire to teach others? Are you interested in an opportunity to gain more information about CENN's Preceptor Course? This course will run approximately 6 months and will offer in-person and ZOOM classes.
